

IEC-BC Advisory Group

Terms of Reference

This document outlines the Terms of Reference for the IEC-BC Advisory Group, including its purpose, role and objectives, as well as the process for working together.

Recent employer sector dialogues, roundtables and focus groups have highlighted the deeper challenges that employers face when attracting, hiring, onboarding and retaining newcomers.

IEC-BC is committed to finding employer-facing solutions to these challenges. The Advisory Group will support this process by providing insights into the specific barriers to recruitment and retention, and developing strategies to overcome them.

“We believe that the successful integration of skilled newcomers into the BC Labour force is critical to both their success and the province’s long-term economic performance.” - IEC-BC

Purpose	The purpose of the Advisory Group is to identify innovative solutions for BC employers to attract, hire and retain immigrant talent to meet the province’s labour-force needs now and in the coming years.
Role	The Advisory Group will be comprised of HR professionals, hiring managers and other professionals who will provide their expert input on ways to boost employer engagement and develop relevant IEC-BC learning resources/tools.
