

Coordinator, Learning and Inclusive Workplaces

About Us

The Immigrant Employment Council of BC is a dynamic not-for-profit that helps BC employers recognize the collective value immigrants bring to the workforce, positively impacting our society and economy. As a growing organization, our programs break down barriers that keep BC businesses from making full use of the diverse skills and experience immigrants bring. We help immigrants build a new life in Canada by creating pathways to employment and community engagement.

If you want to join an innovative and purpose-driven team that is building a prosperous and inclusive future for British Columbia, apply to join the Immigrant Employment Council of BC.

About the Role

We are seeking a self-motivated and results-driven individual to lead the development and implementation of learning programs and resources to support employers to hire and retain newcomers and create diverse and inclusive workplaces.

To do this, you will build partnerships with employers and industry/business organizations and stay current on emerging workforce needs and opportunities. You must be strategic and have the execution ability to develop and implement new learning initiatives for employers. You will also lend your expertise to enhance existing IEC-BC programs to ensure they meet goals and demonstrate impact.

You have proven ability to effectively communicate with the C-level within employer and partner organizations. You are comfortable with ambiguity and uncertainty that comes with the creation of new projects and initiatives. You are a self-starter, adaptable, a creative problem solver and accustomed to rolling up your sleeves to pitch in to get the job done - we are a small team with ambitious goals and you are ready to do what it takes irrespective of job descriptions.

While you will lead employer learning projects and initiatives, you won't do it alone. You will work closely with the Senior Manager, Programs and Stakeholder Relations, Educational Technologist Coordinator, Employer Relations and other IEC-BC team members.
